

PASADO SIMPLE

Was / were

ppp 028

Was / were (afirmativo)

- Was / were es la forma en pasado simple del verbo “to be” (ser/estar). En presente simple is, are, am.
- Observa la tabla de abajo para ver que sujetos utilizan was y cuales were:

Afirmativo

I	was	very nervous. born in Oaxaca. at home all day.
She
He
It
You	were	happy at the party.
We They

Was / were (negativo)

- Para hacer el negativo solo se agrega not después de was, were y se puede hacer contracción wasn't, weren't.

Ejemplos:

- ✓ My best friend was not (wasn't) at school last week.
(mi mejor amigo no estuvo en la escuela la semana pasada).

- ✓ You were not (weren't) responsible when you were in high school.
(Tu no eras responsable cuando estabas en la preparatoria).

Was / were (interrogativo)

- Para hacer preguntas con was/were (forma interrogativa) solo debes invertir el orden del verbo con el sujeto. Y si deseas hacer una pregunta donde la respuesta sea algo específico, utiliza una wh-word al inicio. Observa:

Why	was	your mother	sad?
Who	was	Tony	with?
Where	were	you	born?
What	were	they	eating?

To be born

- El verbo “to be born” significa nacer.

En presente:

- ✓ Most children are born in hospitals.
(la mayoría de los niños nacen en hospitales)

En pasado:

- ✓ I was born in Córdoba in 1985.
(Yo nací en Córdoba en 1985).

En futuro:

- ✓ My nephew will be born on July.
(Mi sobrino nacerá en julio)

BE CAREFUL!

➤ No confundas el verbo to be (ser o estar) en pasado, was/were, con el auxiliar did, utilizado en la forma negativa e interrogativa del pasado simple. Observa la diferencia:

✓ My father was very nervous last night.

(Mi papá estaba muy nervioso anoche).

* En este ejemplo el verbo principal es to be (ser /estar)

✓ My father didn't travel by plane before.

(Mi papá no viajó en avión antes).

* En este ejemplo el verbo principal es to travel (viajar)
