

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE FINAL PAPER

(Final Publication for the e-book chapter)

Format and style

The title of the paper must be in capital letter, centered, Arial 14, bold. The name of the authors must be written as follows: Last name (s), Name (s). Be sure to address the affiliation/Institution of the authors. Each manuscript must be accompanied with a summary no longer than 100 words, in Italics, Arial 12. At the end of the abstract, mention up to 6 keywords. Use 1.5 separation space throughout the document.

General Requirements (Final Publication for the e-book chapter)

1) The authors must prepare their document in MS Word and send it by e-mail to: cienciasbasicas1418@gmail.com Separate the text into sections, with clear headlines (Arial 14, bold, CAPITAL LETTER). The body of the text must be in Arial 12. The margins must be 2.5 cm upper and lower parts and 3 cm. on the sides.

2) The publishing will be based in the final work, it MUST be original, relevant and unpublished. The organizing committee reserves the right to exclude documents for quality, content, language, appearance and other reasons. The authors have to fill, and send the “cession of rights” signed by all the authors, which is available in the link:

3) All documents must be written in one of the official languages of the conference: Spanish or English. Papers will be accepted in other languages, as long as they contain a summary in English.

4) Contributions for the publishing must contain at least 16 pages in A4 size, including figures, pictures, tables, references, etc. for its inclusion as a chapter in the e-book of the event with ISBN.

5) It is essential that the paper have a maximum of three authors, and at least one of them present it at the conference and be officially registered, for the paper to be published and scheduled in the conference session. In no case, an author can present more than one paper at the event.

NOTE: It is possible for all the authors to attend and get the Conference Certificate, as long as all of them are officially registered.

6) Write the figure legends in Arial 12. Use standard symbols and abbreviations in the texts and pictures. When use symbols, arrows, numbers or letters to point out parts of the pictures, you should identify them and explain them clearly. The tables must be self-explanatory and must complement, not duplicate the text. Quote each table in the text in consecutive order, tables must be consecutively numbered, and give a brief title to each of them. Put the explanatory material as a footnote, not in the headlines.

7) The references must be written in Arial 10, consecutively numbered as it shows in the text inside the parenthesis (example: [1]) and listed at the end of the document. Full bibliographic details will be used in accordance with scientific standards.

8) Curriculum Vitae and recent Picture. The last page of the document must contain a brief CV in less than 10 lines, in Arial 10. Attach a recent color picture (of 300 pixel resolution .jpg or .png format) of each author.

OTHERS CONSIDERATIONS IN THE PREPARATION OF THE MANUSCRIPT.

A) Introduction.

Summarize the background, importance and innovation. The results and discussions should not be included in the Introduction.

B) Materials and Methods

The sources of specific materials (including reagents, software, and equipment) must be named and marked with TM or ® if they are registered brands or products. These brands should be included only the first time the product is mentioned within the text. When citing specific brands of products or technologies, please include in parentheses the name and location of the manufacturer (city, state / province, and country).

C) Results, Discussion

The results and discussions can be combined in one section.

D) Acknowledgements

If they are relevant.

E) References

As described in requirement number 7.

F) Permissions

For material published elsewhere, check if permission is required from the publisher or the corresponding publication. Any other publication from which images or tables are taken, should be listed in the list of references. An appropriate credit line should be included in the legend of the image or footnote of the table or chart.
