

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
Between
Institute of Latin American Studies, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
And
Universidad Veracruzana

Institute of Latin American Studies, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, China and Universidad Veracruzana, Mexico with the aim of broadening and deepening their mutual scientific and pedagogical relations and cooperation in the interest of contributing to the development of research and higher education, have reached the following Memorandum of Understanding on the basis of mutual understanding and benefit.

Article 1

The Institutions will undertake, within available resources to promote research co-operation on a case-by-case basis:

1. Exchange of scholars for study and research visits;
2. Encouragement of co-operative projects;
3. Organisation and sponsorship of joint conferences, symposia and workshops;
4. Exchange of teaching and scientific information and documentation.

Article 2

The quota of exchange scholars, priority of cooperation, financial terms, requirement of procedure and the other details will be signed separately in Annex by correspondence between authorized coordinators of the parties with mutual consent by the exchange of letters or the meetings.

Article 3

This Memorandum of Understanding shall come into force on the date of signature and will be effective for four years. Unless either side has given six months notice of its wish to amend or cancel it, the Memorandum of Understanding will be extended for a further period of four years upon mutual agreement of the Parties.

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be written in English, as the only official status.

On behalf of
Institute of Latin American Studies
Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Deputy Director-general
Prof. Wang Rongjun

Date: 2019. 9. 23

On behalf of
Universidad Veracruzana

President
Dra. Sara Ladrón de Guevara

Date: 23.09.2019