4.3 Checa las oraciones del ejercicio 5.1 y 5.2 de nuevo y analiza los verbos en pasado (letras en rojo). Después contesta la siguiente pregunta:

¿Qué diferencia notas entre los verbos en pasado?

Tal vez llegaste a la conclusión que algunos terminan en “ed” y otros no. Si no es así observa los verbos nuevamente y checa esta diferencia.

La razón por la cual unos verbos en pasado terminan en “ed” y otros no es la siguiente:

Existen dos clases de verbos en pasado: los regulares y los irregulares.

Los verbos regulares son los que terminan en “ed”

Ejemplo:

Verbo	presente	pasado
Jugar	play	played
Limpiar	clean	cleaned
Lavar	wash	washed

Los verbos irregulares son los que terminan en cualquier cosa pero no en “ed”

Ejemplo:

Verbo presente pasado

Ir go went
Comer eat ate
Beber drink drank

Tal vez te estés preguntando como saber como saber cuando los verbos son regulares y cuando son irregulares. NO EXISTE UNA REGLA MAGICA PARA SABER TAL COSA. Lo único que puedes hacer es MEMORIZAR los verbos en pasado. Aquí esta una lista de verbos regulares e irregulares. Si algún verbo que quieras saber en pasado no esta en la lista. Aquí están unas ligas de Internet que puedes consultar para ver mas listas de verbos.

4.4 Ahora que tienes las listas de verbos en pasado, apóyate en un diccionario y traduce las oraciones del ejercicio 5.1 y 5.2 al español.

Ejemplo:

She sold fruits in the market yesterday → Ella vendió frutas en el mercado ayer

4.5 Una vez que traduzcas las oraciones, analiza sus componentes e identifica los siguientes elementos:

Subject – verb in past – object – place – time
Sujeto verbo en pasado objeto lugar tiempo

Ejemplo:

(con la oración 1 del ejercicio 5.1) She sold fruits in the market yesterday.

Subject: she
Verb in past: sold
Object: fruits
Place: in the market
Time: yesterday

*No todas las oraciones contienen o llevan todos los elementos

Simple past affirmative

La formula para hacer oraciones afirmativas es como sigue:

Persona + verbo en pasado + objeto + lugar + tiempo. Ejemplo:

Pedro ate hamburgers in Burger King yesterday

* Pedro comió hamburguesas en Burger king ayer

La persona puede ser un pronombre personal, o el nombre de la persona, como en el ejemplo. Personas: I, you, he, she, it , we, you, they Yo, tu, el, ella, ello nosotros, uds, ellos

El tiempo, como estamos hablando en pasado son palabras que te refieran al tiempo pasado. Tales como:

Ayer :	yesterday
La semana pasada:	last week
El mes pasado:	last month
El fin de semana pasado:	last weekend
El sábado pasado:	last Saturday
Antier:	the day before yesterday
En 1999	in 1999

Example

Last Saturday I got up late , then I ate “chilaquiles for breakfast.

After breakfast, I cleaned my room and did homework.

In the afternoon, I went to the movies with my friendsetc.

In the evening I.....

On Sunday I

Simple past negative

Para hacer oraciones negativas en pasado se debe seguir la siguiente formula

Persona + didn't + verb in present + object + place + time.

Ejemplo:

I didn't study mathematics in the library yesterday

Yo no estudié matemáticas en la biblioteca ayer

La persona puede ser un pronombre personal :

I
You
He
She
It
We
You
They

O bien el nombre o nombres de personas : Mary, Peter , Tom and Sue

Y también familiares : my brother , my sister, my cousins, my parents

4.8 Observa el formato anterior y ordena las siguientes oraciones

Simple past questions

Hay 2 tipos de preguntas en pasado, las

1.- yes / no questions

2.-Wh questions

Yes/ No questions????????????

Para hacer preguntas “yes / no” en pasado sigue el siguiente formato:

Did + persona + verbo en presente + complemento.....?

Ejemplo:

Did I
you
he she go to the movies yesterday ?
It
We
You
they

* La persona tambien puede ser un familiar o el nombre de alguien (Peter, Laura, Tom and Sue , my father, my cousins, firulais etc.....)

Mas ejemplos:

A: Did Pepe and Toño study for the exam yesterday?

B: Yes, they did. They studied all day yesterday

A: Did Laura go shopping last weekend?

B: No, she didn't. She stayed home

Como podrás notar las preguntas “yes / no” se responden así porque siempre se responden con “sí” o “no” , ya después puedes dar información extra como en los ejemplos anteriores, pero es opcional.

4.9 Ordena las siguientes oraciones:

1.- You / did / play / last / soccer / Sunday / ?

2.- Jenny / go / last Summer / to the beach / did / ?

3.- your parents / did / buy / last year / a house ?

4.- you / go to the movies / yesterday / did?

5.- do / his home work / did / Pedro ?

6.- your father / work / yesterday / did ?

7.- cook / María / dinner / did / last night / ?

4.10 Observa los siguientes dibujos y contesta las preguntas con:

He				he
Yes, she	did.	O	No,	she	didn't
It				it
They				they

Cada vez que digas que “no”, da la información correcta

Example:

Did she eat a hamburger ? no, she didn't . She ate some ice cream

1.-Did the giraffe eat leaves?

2.- Did Mary relax during the weekend?

3.-Did Mary win the first prize?

4.- Did Pedro play soccer in the afternoon?

5.-Did Mary clean yesterday?

6.-Did Hugo and Lola ride their bikes yesterday?

“Wh” questions

Las preguntas “wh” no se contestan con “sí “ o con “no” , como las preguntas anteriores, se contestan con información específica.

Estas preguntas se llaman así porque empiezan con una palabra que empieza con “wh” como:

Where = Donde

Who = Quien

What = Que o Cual

When = Cuando

Why = Porque

La formula para hacer estas preguntas es

Palabra "WH" + Did + persona + verbo en presente + complemento.....?

Ejemplo:

Where Did I
you he she play ?
It
We
You
they

Estas preguntas las usan mucho los reporteros para obtener mas información de lo que dicen las celebridades.

Imagina que Madonna dice a su llegada a Inglaterra dice:

O sea : me desmaye!

Lo que le preguntarían los reporteros sería algo así como:

Reporters

Madonna

Where did you faint?

at the airport

When did you faint?

two hours ago

Why did you faint?

because I didn't eat well today

What did you do afterwards?

I went to the hospital
